CLASS POEM

As we stand within these famous halls,
And cast our eyes upon the floor;
We realize that in future years,
These famous walls we'll see no more.

We may not think 'till later years,
Our happiest days were spent right here;
But as we go from this proud school,
Our heads filled with knowledge and our hearts with cheer.

To all our teachers we give heart felt thanks,
For years and years their brains they rack;
Through years of work, of worry, and of strain,
They have set us finally on the track.

In this fine county though it be quite small,
There is someone else whom we should thank;
Our parents through worry and debt,
Have kept our minds from being blank.

As we go out from dear old Valley,
Into the world to meet our goal;
Some will go ahead and some will not,
But we'll remember the things that we've been told.

By P. C. Helmintoller

CLASS SONG

You'll Never Walk Alone

When you walk through a storm
Keep your chin up high,
And don't be afraid of the dark.
At the end of a storm
There's a golden sky,
And the west silver song of a lark.
Walk on, through the wind;
Walk on, through the rain;
Though your dream be tossed and blown,
Walk on, Walk on,
With hope in your heart;
And you'll never walk along;
You'll never walk alone.

CLASS MOTTO

We've just launched- Where shall we anchor?

CLASS HISTORY

Well, that final day arrived, when we as students from Ashwood, Mitchelltown, and Warm Springs, entered into the famous halls of the Old Valley. For that year we elected the following officers to head our class of seventy-seven pupils; President-Billy Fleshman; Vice-President-Madge Hiner; Secretary-Nettie Lou Hodge; Treasurer-Cordelia Liptrap; and Reporter Joan Kellison. From our class we elected Georgie Simpson to serve as our cheer-leader for that year 1954.

We felt more a part of Valley as we became Freshmen in the year 1955. The officers heading the list for that year were: President-Madge Hiner; Vice-President-Georgie Simpson; and Reporter-Millie Ferrell. We were divided into two sections with Mrs. Burruss and Mrs. Bowen as our sponsors. For our football candidate we elected pretty Madge Hiner. Although our rooms were hard to decorate we were urged to try for a prize. We came out third and received a case of pop for our effort. In the spring May Day came along and we put up Georgie Simpson and George Bryant as our attendants. This came off with a Weiner Roast at the Cascades.

We have now climbed the ladder to our Sophomore year. To our pleasure we find Miss Martha Lou Herman as our class sponsor. As top officers for this year we elected the following: President-George Bryant; Vice-President-Georgie Simpson; Secretary-Margaret McComb; Treasurer-Mary Snead and Reporter-Madge Hiner. To raise money for our class, we sold "cow bells" and "shakers" at football games, and also gave a bake sale. The May Day rolling around once again, we elected Nancy Byrd and Leon Madison as our candidates.

With eager hearts and bright eyes, the class of 1956 now juniors, entered the halls of the big new Valley under the direction of Mrs. Jean Siple. This year found us with very little money which meant we were to have our biggest and busiest year. Officers elected this year were; President-Billy Fleshman; Vice-President-Jodie Layton; Secretary-Nancy Byrd; Treasurer-June Gaylor and Reporter Earl Williams. With these officers we prepared ourselves to go to work by sponsoring a bake sale, Doug Wilson Show, talent show and square dance to give our treasurer a job and to raise money for our senior trip and to give the seniors a prom. We held a "Jodie Rally" to raise money for football queen. At the Home Coming game we all proudly watched football captain Dennis Williams crown our candidate Jodie Layton queen, followed that night by a Homecoming Dance which we sponsored. In November we ordered our class rings and eagerly waited for their arrival. At Christmas our class won second prize in the room decoration contest. We sponsored a three-act play, a comedy entitled Brother Goose which proved to be a total success.

Finally after four long years of struggle we obtained the positions as seniors in the new beautiful Valley High. We were happy to find Mrs. Jean Siple as our sponsor again. To serve as officers and head our class, we elected: President-Billy Fleshman; Vice-President-June Gaylor; Secretary-Georgie Simpson; Treasurer-Charlotte Carpenter; Chaplain-Margaret Liptrap; Reporter-Earl Williams. We have as our motto, "We've just launched-where shall we anchor?" Our class flower is the Red Rose. Our poem was written by P. C. Helmintoller. Some of the activities sponsored by the senior class to this present day, are, the square dance, concession at the football game, and the talent show. As we look back to the beginning of football season we elected June Gaylor as one of the attendents. Charlotte Carpenter came in second place winner in the "Voice of Democracy" contest. We are looking forward to the many special activities yet to come in our senior year such as our trip and senior play. Four years we have looked forward to our graduating year, but now that we have ordered our announcements, and the year is well on its way, we find ourselves not as anxious as we once were.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

To anyone who can get him, I, Mary Andrews, will Bud.

To Yankee fan, Tommy Stanley, I, Mark Buzzard, will my Dodger year-books.

To anyone who wants them, I, Nancy Byrd, will my freckles.

To Elvis Presley, I, Charlotte Carpenter, will my love for hillbilly music, hoping he'll change.

To Mimi Byrd, I, Roberta Chamblin, will my pony tail and freckles.

To Frances Law, who already has a good start, I Mildred Ferrell, will my flirty ways.

To anyone who wants it, I, Billy Fleshman, will my position on the Annual Staff.

To Billy Liptrap, I, Tommy Ford, will my car so he can go see his girl friends.

To anyone who wants a headache, I, June Gaylor, will my interest in the Covington boys.

To anyone who cares to get gray early, I, Pat Gazzola, will my typing book.

To Teddy Stanley, I, William Giles, will my golf ability.

To anyone who likes to ride in them, I, Anna Mae Harold, will my interest to riding in '55 Chevrolets.

To June Lowry, I, P. C. Helmintoller, will my speed, car, and driving permit along with my love.

To Janice Ryder, I, Madge Hiner, will my seat in English class in hopes that she will make better grades than I.

To Charlie Snyder, I, Aubrey Hodge, will my pitching arm in hopes that he does better with it than I.

To Charlotte Hodge, I, Dorothy Hodge, will my shorthand ability.

To anyone who is crazy enough to want it, I, Stuart Judy, will my ability to drive a school bus.

To each of the teachers, I, Jodie Layton, will a box of aspirins to ease their headaches after I am gone.

To anyone who has a steam shovel, I, Wilma Layton, will my locker in the hall.

To Miss Herman, I, Lloyd Lindsay, will my history books with a guarantee that they have just been slightly used.

To Emma Liptrap, I, Margaret Liptrap, will my speed in shorthand.

To Jack Matthews, I, Leon Madison, will my ability to refrain from wise cracks every time someone says something to me, and I will my English papers and book to Mrs. Wallace.

To my sister Sandra, I, Betty May, will my Senior English book and hope that she has more success with it than I.

To Mary Joe Durrett, I, Ernie May, will my class ring forever.

To Rodger Loan, I, Carolyn Martin, will my blond hair.

To Jesse Johnson, I, Eddie McAllister, will my red truck so he can stop bumming around.

To Nora Chestnut, I, Margaret McComb, will my English book with hopes that she will understand it better than I.

To Pat Lennon, I, Wayne Peery will my Yankee History Book.

To Dorothy Smith, I, Wanda Redman, will my witty ways.

To Mary F. Herman, I, Mary Snead, will my quietness, bashfulness, and basketball ability.

To John Hart, I, Georgie Simpson, will my jitterbugging ways.

To Miss Herman, I, Rose Marie Smith, will my Junior and Senior History Books.

To Wayne Hiner, I, Columbus Shifflett, will my athletic ability.

To Stephen Wiley, I, Jean Waskey, will my basketball ability.

To anyone who really wants to get ahead, I, Earl Williams, will my love for Mrs. Neff and five years of mathematics.

To anyone who gets that far, I, Violet Wolfe, will my cap and gown.

CLASS PROPHECY

Seated around our banquet table are the graduates of '58. Starting from my right is Miss Mary Andrews, who is secretary to Mr. President, Mark Buzzard. She says it is a tough job, because it's awfully hard to take dictation on the boss's knee. Miss Nancy Byrd has become the first female Elvis Presley. Miss Charlotte Carpenter owns a chain of drug stores. She has gotten a trophy because she has sold more pills than Mr. Carter. Whom do we see at the head of a kindergarten class, none other than Miss Roberta Chamblin. Mrs. Jackie Terry, the former Miss Millie Ferrell, is now secretary for her husband, because she doesn't want anyone else to have lunch with him. Mr. Billy Fleshman is building model ships for all his little Fleshmans. Mr. Tommy Ford has built the fastest car in the world because he remembers how long it took him to get to Clifton Forge. Miss June Gaylor, who didn't get to be football queen, is now the beautiful Miss America of '68 Mr. William Giles is now in the ministry and holding more services than Billy Graham. Mrs. Jerry Brinkley, the former Miss Pat Gazzola, has an orange plantation in Florida. She says orange juice has made all the little Brinkleys healthy. Miss Anna Mae Harold is working for her brother-in-law as a secretary. She says that it's easy because she keeps the boss laughing, and he doesn't give her any work to do. Mr. P. C. Helmintoller is the world's fastest walker. Mr. Helmintoller says that cars are too slow so he would just as soon walk. Mrs. Carl May, the former Miss Madge Hiner, is writing a book, "The Quickest Way to Get That Diamond," Mr. Aubrey Hodge has invented a jet that flies faster than sight. Miss Dorothy Hodge is a nurse and an embalmer. Mr. Stuart Judy owns the Trailway Busses. Just think, he started at the bottom by driving a school bus. Miss Jodie Layton is Secretary to the Commander of the Navy. She arrived in her private ship, "The Leyte." Mrs. Bill Hoover, the former Miss Wilma Layton, owns a chain of supermarkets. Mrs. Hoover says this is the only way we could feed nine "little Hoovers" cheaply. On my left is Mr. Lloyd Lindsay, who is a Virginia State Trooper. He is not a successful ticket writer because women have gone to flying jets. Miss Margaret Liptrap, who now is the head of the Navy Nursing Department in Florida, seems to have a great many patients. Mr. Leon Madison is in the Army studying his Senior English to get caught up on what he didn't get during the year. Miss Betty May is secretary to the Burruss Corporation. She says it is awfully hard to type while riding a horse's back. Mr. Ernie May is now filling prescriptions in the Hot Springs Drug Store instead of Mr. Jack Williams. Mr. Holmes McLaughlin has now gotten a secretary to keep in contact with him; she is Miss Carolyn Martin. It seems that when all of the televisions are out of order, no one gets called but Mr. Eddie McAllister. Miss Margaret McComb is now in Florida picking oranges to be shipped back to her home state. Mr. Wayne Peery is flying his own private air plane since he joined the Air Force. Mr. Harold Fisher advertised for a secretary and no one would answer but Miss Wanda Redman. Mrs. Rolf Holmes, the former Miss Mary Snead, is the superintendent at the Holmes' Nursing Home, nursing little Holmeses. Since Miss Georgie Simpson is a beautician, every girl is going to her to get an Elvis Presley hair cut. As we look farther left, we see the well-groomed beautician, Miss Rose Marie Smith. Mr. Columbus Shifflett has taken Mr. Jack Matthews' place as coach at Valley. Mr. Jean Waskey has taken over as the boys Physical Education teacher. Mr. Earl Williams is working his way through V.P.I. by picking up paper off the campus grounds. As we come to the end of the class we see as secretary of the United States Information Agency in Washington, D. C., Miss Violet Wolfe.
